SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS

With the economy hitting everyone hard, we dedicated segments everyday to the tough times and possible ways to help viewers. These stories focus on everything from local governments looking at four-day work weeks, to how viewers can get better gas mileage, to students wondering how to pay for college. Any topic that hits viewers in their pocketbook is included in this "Tough Times" segment.

Every Thursday night during our 6 PM news, we dedicate a consumer news segment to give viewers the latest local and national consumer information. This includes important information on such things as scams, recalls, and product recommendations.

This report from NewsChannel 5 Consumer Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus uncovered a financial investor who was actually scamming dozens of people out of their entire life savings. The FBI is now talking to the victims of Charles Vaughn and putting together a case against him. While Vaughn was sending clients monthly statements telling them how much money they made, he was spending more than $14 million dollars that wasn't his. We told viewers how to protect themselves and their money from possible scam investors.

This story from NewsChannel 5 Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams took a hard look at the high price of gas and who really controls the pumps where we buy our gas. Our investigation discovered that most of the gas stations in Middle Tennessee are owned by just a handful of companies, therefore cutting down on any "competing" gas prices in the area. We mapped every gas station in the Metro Nashville area by owner and included that information on our website for viewers.

A story from NewsChannel 5 reporter Amy Watson on local companies trying a new approach in the workplace designed to keep the best employees. The program is called Babies in the Workplace and it allows employees to bring their babies into their office. About 100 smaller companies across the country are trying the program, with at least two Middle Tennessee companies among the total.

“Wall Street’s Shadow Market” - a report on credit default swaps and their impact on the current economic crisis. Private, largely undisclosed, and deregulated, these are the contracts that mortgage investors, who bought up the riskiest mortgages when they were repackaged by Wall Street as exotic investment securities, entered into to protect themselves in case their investments went bad. When homeowners began defaulting and the Wall Street high-risk mortgage-backed securities also began to fail, the big investment houses and insurance companies who sold the credit default swaps hadn't set aside the money they needed to pay off all the insurance contracts they'd written. Includes interviews with Jim Grant, editor of Grant's Interest Rate Observer; Frank Partnoy, former derivatives broker; Michael Greenberger, law professor at the University of Maryland; and Robert Pickel, CEO, International Swaps and Derivatives Association. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)

“Kill Bin Laden” - an interview/profile of the officer in command of a team from the U.S. Army’s secret Delta Force, sent to Tora Bora, Afghanistan by the Pentagon shortly after 9/11 to kill Osama bin Laden. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran)

“The Race For The Electric Car” - a report on the race to develop and produce a practical fuel-free electric car. “The FBI’s Wise Guy” - an interview with Joaquin “Jack” Garcia, the Cuban-American FBI agent who infiltrated the Gambino crime family as Jack Falcone, an Italian gangster character he created in 2002 to take down one of the most powerful mobsters in America. Extremely successful, he gained the trust of Gambino capo Greg DePalma, who offered to make Falcone a “made member” of the Mafia -- a proposal which would have made him the first law enforcement agent in history to ever achieve that position. Recently retired after 26 years, he is the author of “Making Jack Falcone”. (C: Armen Keteyian - P: Pat Milton, Michael Radutzky)

“The Battle Of Sadr City” - a report on the advanced weaponry used during the spring 2008 battle in Sadr City, Iraq -- home to two million Shia. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

10/04/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Last Take" (8:00-9:00p) - an investigation into the unsolved 1977 murder of actress Christa Helm, who was found stabbed and bludgeoned outside her agent's home in West Hollywood, California. Police at first thought her murder might be connected to the sensational killing of actor Sal Mineo, murdered exactly one year before in the same neighborhood. Detectives also found out about her infamous "love diary" -- but it had vanished. The diary was not the only way she had kept track of her lovers; there were tape recordings of her sexcapades with her celebrity boyfriends, but those tapes also disappeared. The hunt for the tapes lead to actor Tony Sirico (now best known as 'Paulie Walnuts' on "The Sopranos"), who had been sent by Helm's friends to remove them from her residence. In 2006, when investigators finally spoke to Sirico, he was less than cooperative, but the missing items turned up in the possession of Lennie Barin, Helm's closest friend. Now 31 years into the case, detectives have discovered a long string of boyfriends and girlfriends of Christa's, and suspect that jealousy may have been the motive in her murder. However, recent information has led back to the Sal Mineo connection, and his murderer, Lionel Williams, who served 12 years for the crime. After sifting through all the drama of Christa's life, could the detectives discover that she was simply the victim of a random street robbery at the hand of a career criminal? Her daughter hopes that the murder will be solved, whatever the reason. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Paul F. Ryan) (OAD: 04/26/08; Includes an update.)

10/18/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Into Thin Air" - a report on the disappearance of Jeanette Louise Zapata, who mysteriously vanished without a trace from her home in Madison, Wisconsin on October 11, 1976 -- leaving behind her daughter Linda, and two other children. In the midst of a divorce at the time of her disappearance, she had been married for seventeen years to an engineer, Eugene Zapata. Their marriage had been troubled -- Jeanette discovered that Eugene had sent nude photographs of her to a swingers magazine and oftentimes his behavior towards her around their children was sexual and provocative. Due to his stalking-like behavior, she also had a restraining order against Zapata. Though Officer Greg Martin found Zapata's behavior strange, the results of his lie detector test were inconclusive. With no physical evidence, the case stalled. Eugene Zapata moved back into the house he had once occupied with Jeanette and acted as though nothing had happened. He explained to the children that Jeanette had simply taken off because she was stressed. In November 2004, Jeanette's best friend, Peggy Weekly -- who never believed that Jeanette would abandon her three children -- contacted police in Madison to reopen the case. Assigned to the case was Detective Marianne Flynn Statz, who after a preliminary investigation, was convinced that Jeanette had been killed and that the right suspect was Eugene. She contacted Linda Zapata, who expressed her own doubts regarding her father's innocence and agreed to help police with their case. After a thorough investigation, Eugene Zapata was arrested for the murder of Jeanette. His trial began in September 2007, but ended in a hung jury. Prosecutor Bob Kaiser was ready to go back to court and try Zapata again, when Zapata surprised everyone and agreed to answer questions regarding Jeanette's disappearance, but only if prosecutors would reduce the charge from murder to reckless homicide. His daughter Linda agreed. According to Eugene, he had argued with Jeanette the morning of October 11, 1976 and when her back was turned, hit her on the head with a paperweight and then strangled her twice. Then he began a grisly thirty year odyssey with her body: burying it, exhuming it, reburying it, and eventually he cut her body into pieces and took it to a land fill. Eugene Zapata was sentenced to five years for reckless homicide. Linda Zapata has been cut off from her immediate family: despite Eugene's plea, her brother and sister believe that their father is innocent. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/25/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Did the Doctor Kill the Doctor?" - a report on the October 1993 murder of Dr. Linda (Lin) Goudey in Stoneham, Massachusetts. At the time she was dating Dr. Timothy Stryker, who depending on whom you believe, is either a calculating murderer or an innocent man. Goudey and Stryker had been dating but friends believed they were ready to break up, even though they had planned to vacation together. Less than two weeks before the trip, witnesses say they heard the couple arguing; and it was the last night Goudey was seen alive. Four days after she was last seen at the hospital, Goudey was found facedown, wrapped in a blanket in the back of her car, in a remote corner of the hospital parking lot. The medical examiner determined it was murder and Stryker became the number one suspect. Nothing police found at the scene pointed directly to Stryker, but it was what they didn't find at the scene that did: her tote bag, the jacket she was wearing and her briefcase were in Stryker's possession. Soon after, Stryker got himself an attorney and the investigation stalled. Goudey's family eventually filed a wrongful death suit. Finally, in 2006, after many delays, the suit finally went to a civil court trial where a jury believed Dr. Stryker killed Dr. Lin Goudey and ordered him to pay Lin's family $15 million. Nobody was surprised that Stryker said he would appeal, but everyone was surprised when he and his lawyer announced they had found a brand new witness. After being questioned by the police, the witness, Craig Pizzano, admitted that Stryker had put him up to it. Stryker was arrested for perjury. This trial hasn't begun yet, but Goudey's family hopes that eventually Stryker will be charged with murder. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Deborah Grau)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

11/01/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blood and Money On Horseshoe Bay" - a report on the November 2005 murder of Charlie White, a larger-than-life Texas millionaire who lived a lavish lifestyle in Horseshoe Bay, Texas. When police were called to White's lakeside mansion, they found his body, which had been brutally beaten, with an extension cord wrapped around his neck several times. By first impression, White was a very likeable person, but as police investigated his murder, a darker image of White emerged -- one of a cruel man with a dangerous mean streak sharpened by arrogance, alcohol, and women. With an unbridled passion for the fairer sex, White bedded and rated the sexual prowess of over a thousand women, including strippers, prostitutes, and even the girlfriends of his own son Darin, who Charlie used to pick up women to fulfill his needs. As the murder investigation unfolded, police focused on the troubled relationship between father and son and soon settled on Darin as the main suspect. When Darin voluntarily came in for questioning, he admitted to being with Charlie the night he died. Darin claimed that after a trip to Wal-Mart, they returned home, where he and his father got into an argument that turned dangerously violent -- Darin believed that his father was going to kill him. After Darin beat and choked his father, he went upstairs to bed and the next morning, drove to his mother's house in New Mexico. But the Texas Rangers didn't buy Darin's story and found no evidence to show that 73-year-old Charlie put up a fight at all. Arrested for his father's murder, prosecutors maintained that it was a case of premeditated murder. But Darin's attorney, Eddie Shell, maintained that it was a misdemeanor murder and a crime of sudden passion, which carries a much lighter sentence. Shell believed that Darin exploded and killed his father in a fit of rage -- one that was brought on by years of torment and physical abuse. In the end, the jury sentenced Darin White to twenty years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division for the murder of his father, Charlie White. Darin will be eligible for parole in ten years. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young, Jenna Jackson)

- 11/08/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft -- that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control -- Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal -- Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell)
- 11/15/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Truth On Trial" - an update of "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/12/05; rebroadcast on 06/06/06). Karen Tipton, a mother of two and the wife of prominent psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, was found stabbed to death in her Decatur, Alabama home in March 1999. Police quickly ruled out the husband as a suspect, and a month later arrested 24-year-old Daniel Wade Moore, who worked for the alarm company that had installed a security system in the Tipton home. Moore, a drug user, had initially confessed to his uncle to being present at the scene of the murder, but later retracted his statement. Despite the lack of physical evidence, Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to death row. Eight months following the conviction, Moore's defense attorneys discovered that prosecutors had withheld potentially conclusive information in the case including an FBI report suggesting that Karen was having multiple affairs, and may have known her killer. In a stunning reversal in February 2005, the same judge who sentenced Moore to death released him from prison. The state appealed the decision and Daniel Moore is now awaiting a new trial that could set him free. Update: In February 2008, Daniel Wade Moore returned to court, this time with the FBI report and new witnesses. After six days of deliberation and nine years to the day that Karen Tipton was murdered, Moore's second trial ended with a hung jury. The judge had no choice but to declare a mistrial and Moore was sent back to the Morgan County jail. One month after the mistrial, Moore was told that he would be allowed to wait for his next trial at home. Currently free on $150,000 bond, Moore's third trial is set to begin on April 13th, 2009, in Decatur -- even though several jurors say Daniel Wade Moore will never be convicted in his hometown. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 11/22/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Mortgage And The Murder" - For nearly a year, twenty-year-old Renee Ohlemacher was suspected in the murder of her parents, Bernadette and Greg, who were shot in their Albuquerque, New Mexico home on the early morning of August 2, 2005. Renee says that, upon hearing the gunshots, she hid in a closet and called the police. Certain that the killer knew the couple, investigators began questioning her every move. Her family also had their doubts about her innocence -- she was set to inherit nearly $1 million from a life insurance policy purchased by her mother. However, no physical evidence linked Renee to the crime. Then, nearly a year later, it was discovered that Ron Santiago, the murdered couple's mortgage broker, had once owned a 9-millimeter Ruger handgun, the same type of gun that had killed the Ohlemachers. Police searched his home and found a 9-millimeter shell casing in a bag in his garage. Santiago was arrested, charged and jailed for the murder, but was later released on bail because of a judge's ruling that the search of Santiago's house was illegal. This decision is being appealed by the District Attorney. Meanwhile, Ohlemacher family members still believe that Renee carried out a plan to murder her parents, and that the true killer is still at large. They have filed a civil suit against both Renee and Ron Santiago in their search for answers. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Paul LaRosa)
- 11/29/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith)

- 12/07/08 "The Oil Kingdom" - a report on the oil industry in Saudi Arabia, the world's largest supplier of oil. Despite the pledge of President-elect Barack Obama and others to lessen America's use of foreign oil, Saudi Arabia isn't worried and is gearing up to produce more. With the development of horizontal drilling, they are able to access oil that was discovered thirty years ago -- enough to keep the United States as their number one customer. Those interviewed are: Ali Al-Naimi, Oil Minister of Saudi Arabia and de facto head of OPEC; Awayyid Al-Shammari, who oversees the mega-project at the Shaybah facility; Khalid Abdulqader, project manager at the Khurais field; and Abdallah Jum'ah, President and CEO of Saudi Aramco, the kingdom's national oil company. "Where's The Bottom?" - a report on Alt-A and Option ARM's (adjustable rate mortgage) -- two popular types of loans that were supposed to be higher-quality mortgages -- and their potential impact on the current economic crisis. The option ARM's in particular lured borrowers in with ultra-low initial interest rates, called teaser rates, sometimes as low as one percent. But after two, three or five years, those rates reset, resulting in higher monthly payments for homeowners. Now the Alt-A and option ARM loans made back in the heyday are starting to reset, causing mortgage payments to go up and homeowners to default. Among those interviewed include: Whitney Tilson, an investment fund manager who teamed up with Amherst Securities, an investment firm that specializes in mortgages; Miami real estate broker Peter Zalewski, of Condo Vultures Realty; and Sean Egan, who runs a credit rating firm that analyzes corporate debt. (2) "The Road to the White House" (The Primaries) - after an enthusiastic beginning, Obama's campaign hit a wall, and on the eve of the primaries, he trailed Hillary Clinton by nearly 20 points. He learned to be a great candidate, and in Iowa, his organization outmaneuvered the Clinton campaign and achieved victory, shattering Senator Clinton's aura of inevitability. (P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald). (3) "The Road to the White House" (Victory) - Obama went to the Democratic convention assured of the nomination and made history as the first African-American presidential nominee of a major political party. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 12/06/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Guessing Game" - a report on the January 11th, 1999 murder of Belinda Temple and her unborn child. A resident of Katy, Texas, Belinda was married to David Temple, once the celebrated defensive linebacker at his high school and now a successful and respected football coach, and mother to their one son, Evan. After an afternoon of errands with Evan, David returned home to what appeared to be forced entry and found Belinda in the couple's bedroom closet, shot in the head. Homicide detectives believed that the crime scene had been staged -- nothing was stolen from the home and the way the pieces of glass fell from the broken back door of the Temple's home seemed unusual, as if the glass was broken with the door already opened. Detectives were also troubled when they learned that David was having an affair with a fellow teacher, Heather Scott, who eventually became his second wife. Three months after the crime, a grand jury was convened, but nobody was indicted. With no DNA evidence, no eyewitnesses, no murder weapon, and no incriminating fingerprints linking David Temple to the crime, years passed until 2004, when Scott Peterson was convicted of killing his pregnant wife in a trial that captured the nation's attention. The similarities in both murders gave authorities a renewed confidence in their circumstantial case against David. Prosecutor Kelly Siegler finally got some forensic evidence, when after years of laboratory snafus and delays, a critical FBI report came back and indicated traces of gunshot residue on David's jacket. On November 29th, 2004, David was arrested for the murder of his wife, Belinda. After a contentious trial with David's attorney, Dick DeGuerin, David was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2037, when he will be 69 years old. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Jenna Jackson)
- 12/13/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadline For Justice" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the cold cases of two young women, both new to the areas where they lived, who were both raped and murdered. In the first case, in 2002, young television reporter Jennifer Servo was found murdered weeks after moving to Abilene, Texas to begin a new job at KRBC-TV. Co-workers suspected an ex-boyfriend, Ralph Sepulveda, who had moved to Texas with her, but with whom she had recently broken up. Investigators also suspected a fellow reporter, Brian Travers, who had recently begun a romantic relationship with Jennifer. In the five years since the murder, police have not been able to make an arrest but vow not to give up until the case is solved. In the second case, Patty Scoville moved to Vermont in September 1991 to become a children's ski instructor, but just three weeks later, she disappeared and was found raped and murdered on a local scenic hiking trail. The investigation turned up more than 20 suspects: men Patty knew or those who had been in the park that day. The best evidence in solving the murder would be DNA, but Vermont was one of the last states to have a DNA data base. After seven years of lobbying by her parents, the Vermont DNA database was enacted into law. Seven additional years after it was established, and fourteen years after the murder the case was solved: Howard Godfrey, a 59-year-old window installer, was charged and found guilty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/13/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Invitation To A Murder" (10:00-11:00p) - Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley)
Update for the 12/13/08 rebroadcast: In the Spring of 2005, an inmate at the prison in Pontiac came forward and said that Mark Winger tried to involve him in a murder-for-hire plot, with DeAnn Schultz as the intended victim and if money allowed, to also kill his father-in-law, Ira Drescher. In June 2007, Winger stood trial in Pontiac and claimed that the whole thing was a fantasy he never planned to carry out. Mark Winger was convicted of soliciting murder and sentenced to another 35 years. He will never be eligible for parole. Winger's second wife has divorced him. Donnah's parents, Sara Jane and Ira Drescher, are helping other abused women and have established a fund in Donnah's name at "Women in Distress"; an organization dedicated to empowering domestic violence victims. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 01/15/03; 1st rebroadcast: 06/13/03; 2nd rebroadcast: 08/25/04, included an update.)
- 12/20/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Power, Passion and Poison" - a report on the death of 50-year-old Kathy Augustine, a career politician from Nevada. Questions arose about the cause of her death after police received a tip from her husband's co-worker that she may have been poisoned, and toxicology reports further confirmed the presence of the powerful paralytic drug Succinylcholine. That discovery led to further questions about the death three years earlier of her estranged husband, Charles Augustine; her subsequent and immediate marriage to Chaz Higgs, a nurse who had cared for him, and if politics played any part in her death. Upon further investigation, Chaz Higgs was arrested and charged with the murder of Kathy Augustine. He is currently free on bail and his trial is scheduled to begin next month. Nevada authorities are no longer investigating alleged threats against Augustine by political enemies. Includes interviews with Augustine's parents, Phil & Kay Alfano; Reno Police Detective, Dave Jenkins; Charles Augustine's sons from a previous marriage, Larry and Greg. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Lisa Freed, Doug Longhini, Steven Reiner)
Update for this rebroadcast: At the trial, prosecutor Christopher Hicks portrayed Chaz Higgs as a calculated murderer, but defense attorney David Houston revealed that it was discovered that Kathy Augustine had a heart condition - mitral valve prolapse with regurgitation - and argued that she died of a heart attack. The coroner's office disagreed and stood by their original conclusion that Kathy Augustine died from Succinylcholine toxicity. Chaz Higgs took the stand for his defense and that night, tried to commit suicide by slitting his wrists. Two days later, he returned to court, was cross examined, and denied that it was a sympathy ploy. After nine days of testimony, the jury found Chaz Higgs guilty of first degree murder. He was sentenced to life in prison, but is eligible for parole in twenty years. Higgs is appealing his conviction. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Lisa Freed, Linda Martin, Doug Longhini, Steven Reiner) (OAD: 05/05/07; includes an update.)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
SUSHI PACK is an animated series featuring an unlikely group of superheroes consisting of four small pieces of Sushi, and a tube of mustard. Through an accident involving an irradiation process, these characters are brought to life, and dedicate themselves to fighting crime, injustice, and helping those in need. The themes integrated into the episodes of SUSHI PACK are associated with the teaching of certain positive social behaviors and skills to children. The major educational objectives of the program are to have young viewers learn some important life-lessons related to such traits as loyalty, honesty, and self-confidence, and such behaviors as teamwork problem-solving and cooperation. The program seeks to help children understand that these are every day pro-social attitudes and behaviors that can be modeled and used by them at home and among their friends. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
In this series, Strawberry Shortcake, a curious, self-confident leader, narrates stories of her and her friends' adventures in the richly-imagined world of Strawberry Land. Using her many positive qualities, Strawberry helps her friends, who share her values but not necessarily her ability to take a broader view, to see beyond their own self-interest. The themes of the stories are designed to have particular relevance for young viewers, focusing on such issues as friendship, fear, self-confidence, sportsmanship, trust and shyness. The pro-social messages flow naturally from the narrative, as the characters experience concrete (positive and negative) consequences of their actions. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
